Supervisor Burke made the following statement:

“On April 3, 2008, the Los Angeles County Department of Public Health will kick off Public Health Week, starting on April 7 through 13, 2008 with a press conference at the Kenneth Hahn Hall of Administration Mall. This year’s Public Health Week theme ‘Healthy People: Healthy Planet – Climate Change in L.A.’ focuses on the impact of climate change on public health and how to better prepare for climate-related and other emergencies. Elected officials, community leaders, and other public health partners are invited to attend.

“During Public Health Week, many health-related activities are held throughout the County in partnership with private hospitals, health providers, colleges, schools, churches, community organizations and other County Departments.”

Therefore, on motion of Supervisor Burke, seconded by Supervisor Yaroslavsky, unanimously carried (Supervisor Molina being absent), the Board waived fees in the amount of $17 per car, excluding the cost of liability insurance, at the Music Center Garage for attendees of the press conference to kick off the Department of Public Health’s Public Health Week “Healthy People: Healthy Planet - Climate Change in L.A.,” to be held at the Kenneth Hahn Hall of Administration’s Mall area on April 3, 2008.
